

The image is a vertical composition. At the top, a dark bird with its wings fully extended is depicted in flight, facing downwards. Below the bird, the word "Winterreise" is written in a large, white, sans-serif font. At the bottom, the back of a person's head and shoulders is shown, with long, dark hair. The person is wearing a light-colored garment. The background is a light, textured wash of colors, primarily white and pale blue, suggesting a misty or snowy atmosphere.
